DESIGN No. 5158

Five Rooms • With or Without Basement

1,181 SQUARE FEET

This design features convenience that will appeal to the homemaker and a satisfying charm the whole family will enjoy. The bright, sunny kitchen is planned for livability as well as efficiency. Living and dining areas are combined for spaciousness in one handsome room set apart in a wing of its own. All three bedrooms have excellent wardrobe space.

DESIGN No. 5154

Five Rooms • With or Without Basement

1,123 SQUARE FEET

Carefully planned to provide an ideal setting for everyday family living and for entertaining, this three-bedroom home has been wisely engineered to hold construction costs to a minimum. The spacious living room has two special features—sparkling window walls at both ends and a distinctive fireplace.

DESIGN No. 5153

Five Rooms • With or Without Basement

1,083 SQUARE FEET

This bright, cheerful design suggests happy family living. Western Red Cedar shingles and vertical wood siding, combined with the massive brick chimney, give this home the mark of stability and permanence. Features of the living room are the spacious entry with coat closet, the beautiful window wall, and the dramatic fireplace.

DESIGN No. 5152

Five Rooms • With or Without Basement

1,101 SQUARE FEET

The gently sloping hip roof that extends in a wide overhang and the shutters at windows and front entrance add distinction and color to this modern, three-bedroom rambler. Spacious, open planning features the interior. The wide window wall in the living room overlooks the rear garden.

DESIGN No. 5151

Five Rooms • No Basement

1,056 SQUARE FEET

The long, low lines of this new ranch home, with its secluded terrace, promise an atmosphere of inviting friendliness. Inside, skillful planning provides three roomy bedrooms, a large airy kitchen with utility space (there is no basement), and a dramatic 20-foot living room with a wall of windows at each end.

DESIGN No. 5148

Five Rooms • With or Without Basement

1,064 SQUARE FEET

The dignity and charm of Colonial styling has been given this modern three-bedroom home. The spacious living room and dining alcove are bright and cheery, and open directly onto the porch. Separated from activity areas by a hallway, the bedrooms are assured quiet and privacy.

DESIGN No. 5146

Five Rooms • With Basement

1,130 SQUARE FEET

The enduring beauty of wood has been utilized extensively in this design . . . from the vertical siding, plank and beam construction, to the walls of distinctive Driftwood Paneling in the living room. The massive chimney of Roman brick contributes design stability. Screened from the street, the sunny terrace will be a popular spot.

DESIGN No. 5144

Five Rooms • With Basement

1,077 SQUARE FEET

This home has what professional planners call "perfect circulation" . . . keeping any one room from being a traffic "runway" to other rooms. The spacious living room has large, modern view windows overlooking the garden. All of the bedrooms have good light and ventilation, and two of the rooms have large "walk-in" wardrobes. The combination kitchen-dinette is a homemaker's dream.

DESIGN No. 5141

Five Rooms • With Basement
1,096 SQUARE FEET

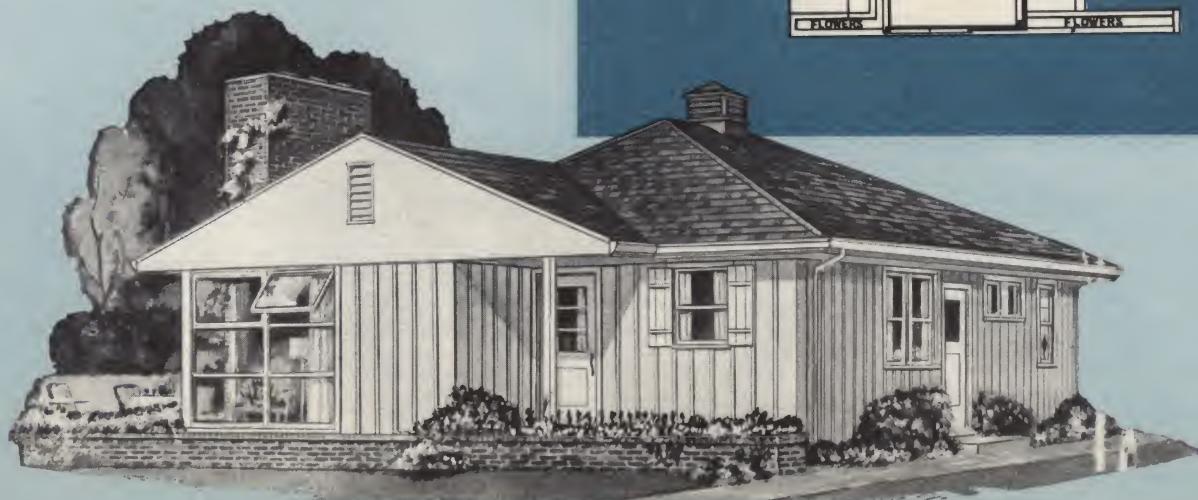

To assure a quiet haven for family living away from street noises, the architect has positioned the living room with its great wall of windows at the rear overlooking the garden. The service section faces the street. From the protected front entry, it is just a step to the kitchen-dinette, the bedroom hall, or the living room.

DESIGN No. 5140

Five Rooms • With Basement
1,147 SQUARE FEET

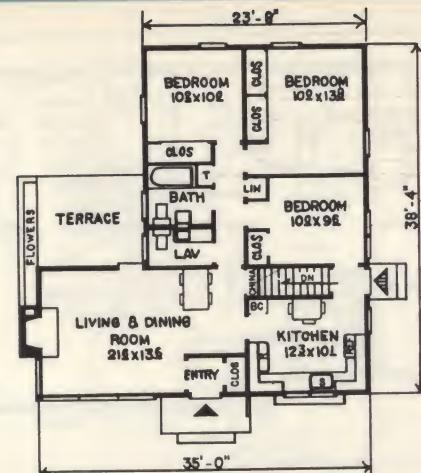

Three often-sought features are incorporated in the design of this attractive, comfortable home. These include a covered entry, a generous master bedroom, and a double-duty chimney that provides both a friendly living room fireplace and a terrace barbecue pit for outdoor living. Further, overall dimensions make the home suitable for a narrow city lot.

DESIGN No. 5139

Five Rooms • With Basement
1,069 SQUARE FEET

Professional designing is expressed in skillfully planned details that make this "house" a "home." The front entryway with handy coat closet, the cozy fireplace, the built-in china cabinet, the deluxe bath-powder-room combination, and the terrace are some of the outstanding features.

DESIGN No. 5138

Five Rooms • With Basement
1,043 SQUARE FEET

Starting with an efficient, practical room arrangement of a three-bedroom home, the architect has included a vestibule with coat closet, spacious living room with a large window area, an efficient corridor-type kitchen, and a cheerful, roomy dinette area. The inviting exterior combines beveled and flush siding with a colorful brick flower enclosure.

DESIGN No. 5136

Five Rooms • With Basement

1,034 SQUARE FEET

In this stimulating design, the modern low-pitch roof has been combined with the traditional gable roof in dramatic fashion. In summer when the sun is high in the sky, the projecting roof serves as an awning for the living room. The corridor-type kitchen is designed for working efficiency and includes a dinette area.

DESIGN No. 5135

Five Rooms • With Basement

1,083 SQUARE FEET

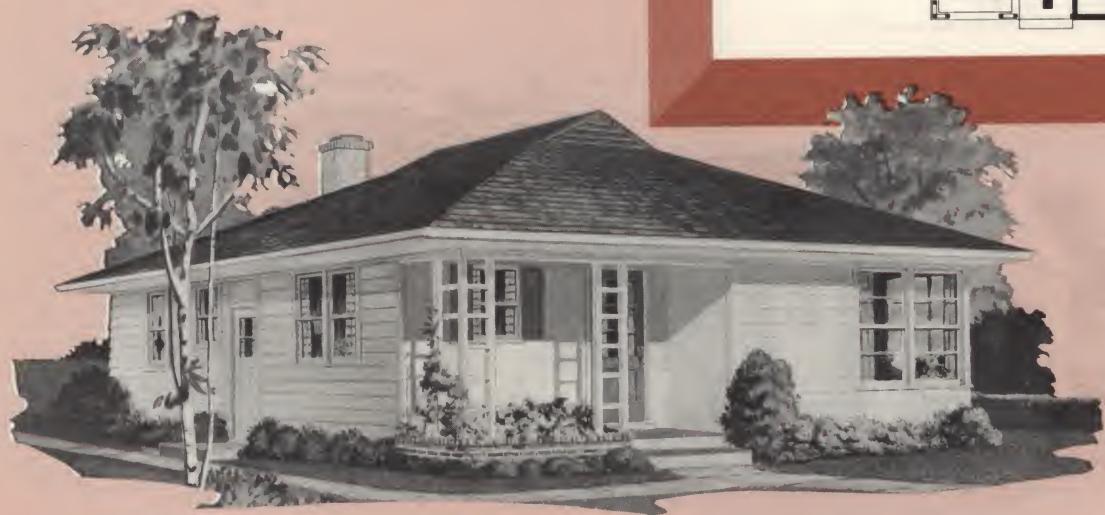

A protective wide roof overhang and windows placed high on the street side are just two of the many interesting features of this home. The large living room with its friendly fireplace has a large window wall that floods the room with light and looks into the garden. The efficient floor plan includes a full bath plus a lavatory.

DESIGN No. 5129

Five Rooms • With Basement
1,040 SQUARE FEET

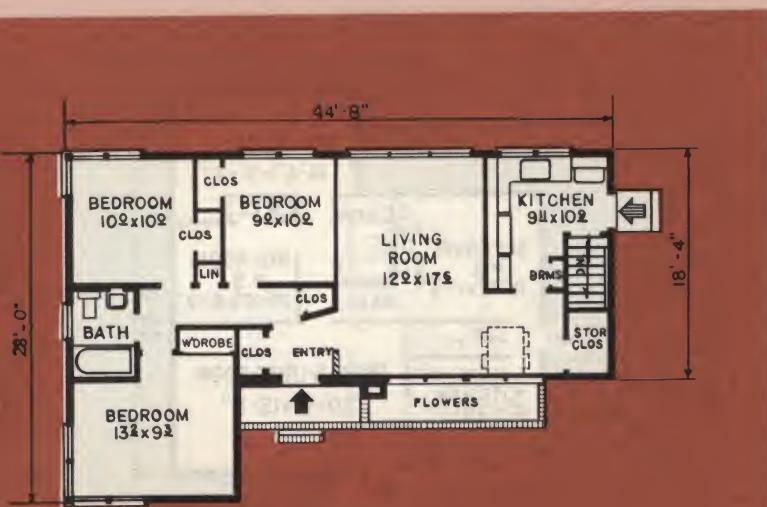

Designed to give new freedom in home planning for the narrow lot, this home, with its large living room, kitchen, three bedrooms and bath, is perfectly suited to the small lot. You will be pleased with its atmosphere of roominess. The kitchen has been carefully planned to give an efficient, generous activities and dining area.

DESIGN No. 5133

Five Rooms • With Basement
955 SQUARE FEET

Combining wide beveled siding with the contrasting color and texture of brick, this attractive modern rambler was created by an architect who has also provided the utmost in living comforts inside. At the right of the front entry, which includes a coat closet, is a modern decorative screen of 1" x 8" wood plank which shields the living room.

DESIGN No. 5127

Five Rooms • With Basement

1,037 SQUARE FEET

This home is one in which to really live—rich in comforts, rich in pleasing beauty both inside and outside. A study of the plan also reveals an ideal arrangement for orderly, convenient living. The handy vestibule closet, the spacious living room, the bright and cheery dinette fulfill the inviting promises of the exterior.

Simplicity of design is refreshing when colorfully complemented by a terrace of flowers. The inviting entry, with convenient closet, leads to the spacious living-dining room. The wide bay window forms a picture effect. The largest bedroom provides for twin beds. One of the other bedrooms could serve as a study or nursery.

DESIGN No. 5122

Five Rooms • With Basement
1,343 SQUARE FEET

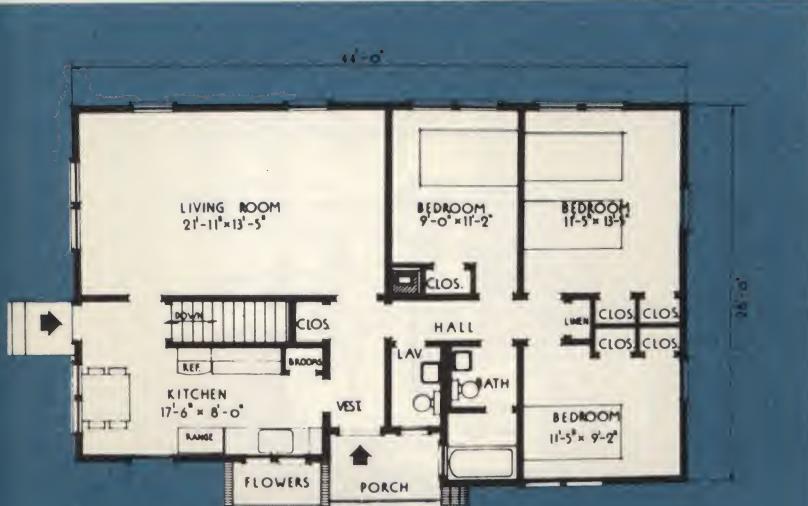

The living room of this skillfully designed home faces the terrace, and a wall of glass provides a wide-open view of the lawn. There is easy access from the efficient corridor-type kitchen to the dining area and both the front and side entrances. All three bedrooms have double closets and cross ventilation.

Here you see a truly modern Home that will never become "dated". You will find in this design the satisfying comforts which modern progress makes possible, plus the beautiful simplicity of the best in good architecture. Movement from room to room is simplified by the central hallway. Bed-rooms are light and airy. Note the departmentalized bath.

DESIGN No. 6209

Six Rooms • Four Levels

1,257 SQUARE FEET

Ideal for a hillside lot, this attractive home is constructed on four levels to provide maximum living space and privacy as well as a more interesting and livable interior. A beautiful living room, dinette, and kitchen are at the street level. At the walk-out level are a multi-use room and big utility room with a door to the rear garden.

DESIGN No. 7101

Seven Rooms • With or Without Basement

1,422 SQUARE FEET

The beautiful simplicity that marks good design gives this home a clean, fresh appearance. Four bedrooms and two baths assure convenience for a large family—yet this design does not require a wide lot nor a large budget. The spacious living room has three tall units of transom-type windows. The plan provides a separate dining room, but a room convenient for entertaining large groups.

Modern Wood Products FOR TODAY'S HOMES

The basic soundness—and the beauty—of your new home depend in no small part upon the materials as well as the design. Protect your building investment by consulting an expert on modern building materials—your Weyerhaeuser 4-Square Lumber Dealer.

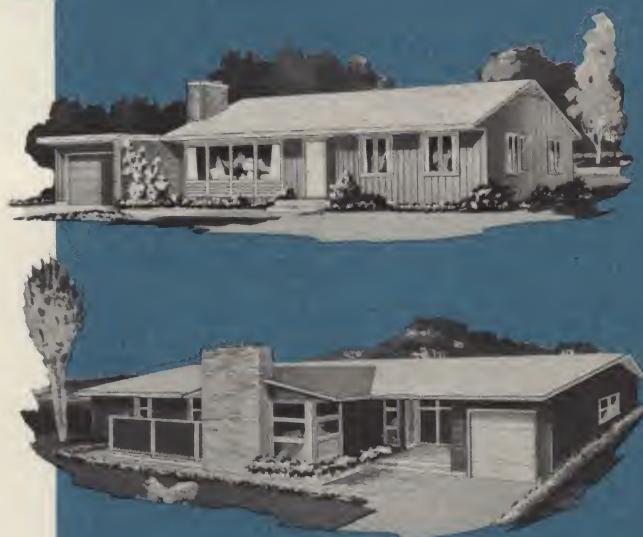

Your lumber dealer can recommend reliable building materials such as Weyerhaeuser 4-Square kiln-dried lumber. He can explain the advantages of building with factory-seasoned kiln-dried lumber . . . lumber that has a more uniform degree of dimensional stability, improved workability, and enduring strength.

He can help you select exactly the pattern of economical, durable wood siding that will complement the design of your choice, express your own individuality. And your Weyerhaeuser 4-Square dealer can show you the new Water-Repellent Treated siding, an improved wood siding material for America's homes. The water repellent treatment contributes to better paint performance, longer-lasting beauty.

For the interior of your home, wood paneling, cabinets, built-ins and trim can give your new (or remodeled) home an air of luxury all out of proportion to the modest cost. Remember, too, that wood grows more lovely as it ages. Let your Weyerhaeuser 4-Square Lumber Dealer help you choose from among the many real wood panelings.

An easy, enjoyable way to make sure that your new home brings lasting value and livability is to consult with your local Weyerhaeuser 4-Square lumber dealer, your reliable expert on home building and improvement.
